

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

September 21, 2022 – Registration is Now Open for Coffee Technicians Summit 2022

Today, the Specialty Coffee Association and Coffee Technicians Guild is thrilled to open registration for the 2022 Coffee Technicians Guild Summit at Accademia del Caffè Espresso in Florence, Italy on November 29-30, 2022.

This year's event will be the first of its kind since 2019 and will see coffee technicians, machinists, and specialists from across the globe come together for two days of hands-on workshops and educational sessions with industry experts. This year's sessions will include hands-on workshops with automatic and super-automatic coffee machines, scale accuracy and calibration, sustainability best-in-practice, and so much more.

Attendees can benefit by booking before October 17, 2022 when Early Bird pricing ends and ticket prices rise by at least €75 for both SCA Members and Non-Members. While accommodation and non-scheduled meals are not included in registration pricing, a list of hotels for all price-points and all budgets can be found on our website. Further information can be found on coffeetechniciansguild.org/ctg-summit-florence

Coffee Technicians Guild Summit 2022 will be held at Accademia del Caffè Espresso in Northern Italy. Described as a "cultural hub focused on espresso", Accademia del Caffè Espresso is a beautiful, modern facility located in the hills of Tuscany just outside of the city of Florence. This facility was created to inspire, educate, and promote the art of espresso and the craftsmanship behind the La Marzocco brand and continued legacy - a perfect place for an event of this kind.

On behalf of La Marzocco and Accademia del Caffè Espresso, Coffee Education Leader Nora Smahelova said;

"We are honored to host the Coffee Technicians Guild Summit. The wider coffee technician community – a strong pillar of our industry.

Accademia was founded by La Marzocco to promote and enhance the culture around espresso coffee, and being an espresso machine manufacturer, we know how important skilled technicians are in maintaining equipment and supporting local businesses. We are proud to partner with SCA as they bring this valuable event to Accademia, contributing to the continuing education of coffee technicians.”

Coffee Technicians Guild Summit 2022 is proudly hosted by Title Sponsor La Marzocco and supported by Lead Sponsor Macap.
